

Jean Folarin, MSN, FNP-C

Valor HospiceCare & The Valor Institute for Palliative Medicine's Tucson Metro Office includes Jean Folarin FNP-C as a Family Nurse Practitioner

Jean has worked in geriatric settings that include in-home, adult care homes, and nursing homes. She has also worked in primary care clinics, urgent care, and with other hospice organizations.

She received her Associate of Science degree in Nursing from Shelby State Community College, Memphis, Tennessee, a Bachelor's of Science in Nursing from Murray State University, Murray, Kentucky, a Master's of Science in Gerontological Nursing from University of Evansville, Evansville, Indiana, and a Post-Master's Certificate in Family Nurse Practitioner from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas. She worked on her Doctorate of Nursing Practice at Northern Arizona University but has taken a hiatus at this time.

Jean has many different interests and has pursued several areas. She became a Lactation Consultant and practiced this area for more than a decade while practicing as a nurse practitioner. She became an Infant Massage Therapist while working with the lactating mothers and using her lactation education and experience. Jean also loves wounds, has taken several wound courses, and has a desire to become a Certified Wound Specialist.
