

Our professional team provides education to patients, families and the healthcare community. Included are a sampling of classes that we offer. Please call today to schedule a presentation.

- Don't Say the "H" Word; How to Talk to People About Hospice
 - Pain Control "Pearls"
 - Infection Control
- Medication Free Approaches to Anxiety Control
- Entering Another World; Understanding Dementia & Alzheimer's
 - Living in the Moment
- Hospice 101; Understanding Who's Eligible for Care
- Hospice 201; Understanding the Four Levels of Care
 - Culture Effects on Hospice Care
 - Strategies for Minimizing Falls
 - The Dying Process
- Managing Stress & Relaxation Methods
 - Ways to Communicate Bad News
- Necessary Conversations; How to Discuss DNR Status & Funeral Plans with Patients
 - Dignity is Everyone's Job
 - Managing Difficult Behaviors
- It's About How You Live; A Life Care Planning Primer
- Partnering; Working Together for the Good of Your Patients
 - Coping Skills for Caregivers
 - Hospice Philosophy of Care
 - Nutrition/Hydration in End of Life
 - Managing Incontinence
 - Techniques to Help Maintain Skin Integrity
 - Communication; Tricks of the Trade
 - Anticipatory Grief & Bereavement Programs
 - Pain Management & PalliativeCare Conferences

For seminars and presentations that meet the needs of health care professionals, contact hours documentation will be supplied for your facility and your position. CEU's may be provided. For further information on Valor HospiceCare & The Valor Institute for Palliative Medicine's patient and specialized programs for community outreach, please contact us at 877.615.3996.

www.valorhospicecare.com

Tucson Metro: 520.615.3996 Green Valley/Nogales: 520.399.0200 Sierra Vista: 520.458.9450